

Hardies in Scotland 2017!

41ST HARDIE FAMILY REUNION & 37TH ANNUAL MEETING OF THE THORNHILL FOUNDATION

RECOMMENDED RESTAURANTS – EDINBURGH

(From Tour Guide, Iain)

- Isle St..Honore in Thistle St.Lane.
- Rollos in Broughton St. off Picardy Pl and in Raeburn Place in Stockbridge.
- the Raeburn Hotel down in Stockbridge.
- there is a very good new Indian in St.Andrew Square [Dishoom Edinburgh?].
- Ondines next to the G and V Hotel in King George 1V Bridge.
- the Tower on the top of the National Museum of Scotland in Chambers St.
- Canny Mans in Morningside Road.
- the Cafe Royal just off St.Andrew Square.
- the Abbotsford in Rose St.

RECOMMENDED RESTAURANTS – EDINBURGH VICINITY

- the Loch Fyne (fish) down in Granton next to Leith.
- Leith is full of nice restaurants and nautical pubs - lovely for an evening if weather good.
- as for that matter is South Queensferry, but a wee drive along the Forth.
- The Cramond Inn west of Edinburgh, and when the tide is out, you can walk out to Cramond Island.
- if anyone wants a little drive out of town one evening, then try my local restaurant the Bakehouse, in West Linton.

Celebrating 200 years since our ancestor John Hardie left his home in Scotland to sail to America and establish a home.
